We are looking for a new Head of Study Environment, is that you?

Are you a graduating student or do you need a gap year from your studies? Or do you need some experience to get your dream job? Then this is the best opportunity for you!

Role Description

The Head of Study Environment represents students at Mälardalen University (MDU) on issues related to study conditions, focusing on the physical and psychological aspects of students' well-being. This role involves recruiting and training Student Safety Representatives (SSRs) and Student Representatives (SRs), ensuring they are prepared for responsibilities across university committees, councils, and the Disciplinary Board.

Key tasks include supporting the Student Influence Education Committee (SIEC), coordinating student representation, and promoting health and safety initiatives alongside MDU's Student Health Center.

Additional responsibilities include addressing student housing concerns, collaborating with MDU leadership, and assisting in planning activities that promote mental and physical well-being.

Qualifications:

✅ Strong interpersonal and communication skills
✅ Collaborative mindset and ability to work in a team and independently
✅ Passionate about empowering students and promoting diversity and inclusion
✅ Fluent in Swedish and English

Merits:

✅ Student at MDU
✅ Bachelor's degree in related field

Benefits:

✨ Leadership and management opportunities.
✨ Community involvement – being part of something bigger than yourself.
✨ Skills development, specifically in teamwork and problem-solving.
✨ Networking.
✨ Resumé building.
✨ Understanding of governance. (University structure)
✨ Understanding of non-profit organization.
✨ Self-development workshops.
✨ Flexible work hours.
✨ Possibility to work hybrid.
✨ Right to keep your MDU student housing.

✨ Wellness allowance. (Friskvårdsbidrag)

✨ Expand your network.

To apply:

Send your CV and personal letters to valnamnden@mdsu.se.

We look forward to read your application.